A QUARTERLY LOOK AT SEASONS OF GIVING

The Nevada Foundation established the Seasons of Giving to raise charitable giving awareness. There are many non-profit organizations in Nevada that are supported by the community. Seasons of Giving provides a way for community members to donate to a larger pool of funds that will be distributed to local non-profits.

Each quarter, a specific charitable need is highlighted. This quarter is "Helping Hands," which encourages support for clothing, food insecurity and shelter. Some examples of the organizations that might benefit from the funds this quarter are Harmony Closet, Food at First, Cubbies Cupboard, Good Samaritan, etc. Organizations in this category may apply for funding for a specific need they have.

How can you donate to this quarter's fundraiser? Visit The Nevada Foundation's website for a pledge form at nevada-iowa-foundation.org/seasons-of-giving or mail a check to Nevada Foundation, PO Box 54, Nevada, IA 50201. Checks can be made payable to The Nevada Foundation with "Seasons of Giving Q1" listed in the memo.

Have another local cause you are passionate about? You can donate to any of the quarterly causes at any time! Just make note on your pledge form which cause you are contributing to.

Are you a local non-profit who'd like to request funding from Seasons of Giving? Visit the Nevada Foundation's website, nevada-iowa-foundation.org, to find out how.

It's Radon Awareness Month

You can't see or smell radon. Testing is the only way to know your level of exposure.

Radon is a radioactive gas that forms naturally when uranium, thorium, or radium, which are radioactive metals, break down in rocks, soil and groundwater. People can be exposed to radon primarily from breathing radon in air that comes through cracks and gaps in buildings and homes. Because radon comes naturally from the earth, people are always exposed to it.

Radon is the number-one cause of lung cancer among non-smokers, according to EPA estimates. Overall, radon is the second leading cause of lung cancer. Radon is responsible for about 21,000 lung cancer deaths every year. About 2,900 of these deaths occur among people who have never smoked.

Story County Environmental Health will be giving away 50 radon test kits to Story County residents on a first come- first serve basis throughout the month of January. (Limit one per resident.)

Radon test kits can be purchased for $10 year-round at the Environmental Health Department (located in the lower level of the Administration Building at 900 6th St., Nevada).

Story County Secondary Roads Winter Maintenance Procedures

County Roads will be maintained to the best of our ability subject to weather conditions, available equipment, and safety of personnel, while also trying to keep within the budget.

Snow will be placed in the shoulder/ditch which may cause accumulations that limit sight distance. Snow will be winged back to reduce drifting and visibility hazards when time and resources permit. Snow plows and spreaders will not normally be in operation on paved roads between the hours of 7 p.m. and 5 a.m. unless an emergency situation exists. Gravel roads may not be plowed if the wind is causing continual drifting.

Private drive snow is not to be placed on the roadway or shoulders as it could create a safety hazard.

Mail boxes which are destroyed by snow plows will be replaced by the county with a normal small size galvanized mail box.

The property owner will be responsible for installing the mailbox. Replacement mail boxes will not be provided for those damaged by flying snow.

Emergency situations will normally be authorized by the Story County Sheriff's Office or a physician. Emergency situations include serious injury, a probable loss of life, or where disastrous loss of property is imminent.

Traffic signs which are missing or destroyed should be reported to the Story County Sheriff's Office by calling 515-382-6566 or 911 in emergency situations.

Priority will be given to replacing critical regulatory signs such as STOP, NO PASSING, and warning signs.

The entire snow removal ordinance can be viewed on the Secondary Roads website at www.storycountyiowa.org.

Questions can be referred to the Story County Secondary Roads Department at 515-382-7355.

Your Health, Your Partner

Why Your Choice of Primary Care Provider Matters for Your Family

Above, primary care providers Rachel Frederick, PA-C, and Dr. Audra Poterucha of Story Medical Clinic - Nevada.

When it comes to managing your health and well-being, having a primary care provider (PCP) can make all the difference. A PCP serves as your first point of contact for medical care, guiding you through routine checkups, managing chronic conditions, and providing personalized health advice. At Story Medical Clinics in Nevada and Maxwell, our dedicated providers are committed to delivering high-quality care to patients in the communities they call home.

Building a Relationship for Better Health

A primary care provider is more than just a doctor or physician assistant—they are a trusted partner in your healthcare journey.

Developing a long-term relationship with your provider allows them to gain a deep understanding of your medical history, lifestyle, and unique needs. This personalized care leads to better overall health outcomes.

“When you have an established primary care provider, they get to know you as a person, not just as a patient,” says Dr. Art Check of Story Medical Clinic in Nevada. "This familiarity helps us identify potential health concerns early and provide preventative care tailored to your needs."

Comprehensive, Coordinated Care

From routine screenings to managing chronic illnesses, a PCP ensures that your healthcare needs are met comprehensively.

They also coordinate your care when referrals to specialists are needed, streamlining the process and ensuring all providers involved are informed about your medical history.

"Continuity of care is key," says Dr. Audra Poterucha of Story Medical Clinic in Nevada. "As a primary care provider, I work to connect the dots for my patients, ensuring their care is seamless and nothing falls through the cracks."

Empowering You to Stay Healthy

At Story Medical, our providers emphasize the importance of preventative care and patient education. By engaging patients in their healthcare decisions, they empower them to live healthier lives.

"Primary care is about prevention as much as it is about treatment," says Rachel Frederick, PA-C, of Story Medical Clinic in Nevada. "We encourage patients to come in for regular checkups, screenings, and discussions about their lifestyle to help them stay ahead of potential health issues."

Convenience and Community Connection

With primary care clinics in Nevada and Maxwell, and Natural Health services in Ames, Story Medical is proud to offer accessible healthcare close to home. Having providers who live in the communities they serve fosters a unique bond with patients.

"Our patients aren't just patients—they're our neighbors and friends," says Michelle Jans, PA-C, of Story Medical Clinic in Maxwell. "That connection creates a level of trust that helps us provide the best possible care."

Whether you're new to the area, haven't seen a provider in a while, or are simply looking to establish a long-term relationship with a primary care provider, Story Medical Clinic is ready to see you now.

Fill the Foyer now in its 10th year of collections

Fill the Foyer 2025 will start on Thursday, Jan. 2, when City offices re-open after the New Year's holiday.

During Fill the Foyer, which runs through Friday, Jan. 31, residents are invited to bring in donations of money and/or non-perishable food items, cleaning supplies, toiletries, and "winter gear" to the front foyer of Nevada City Hall.

Items collected are given to Harmony Clothing Closet, Nevada Community Cupboard, Cubbie's Cupboard, and Nevada Food at First, entities that help families in need within our community.

When it comes to wearable items, Harmony is asking people to donate only "winter gear" during Fill the Foyer. This includes hats, gloves, coats, snow boots, snow pants, and scarves. If you have clothing and other items, those may be dropped off directly to Harmony during regular Monday evening hours (4-7 p.m.).

This year, Food at First is asking for the following donations: Quart zipper bags, 1- and 2-gallon zipper bags, liquid hand soap, Dawn dish soap, and full-size aluminum steam table pans and lids.

Items may be dropped off in the City Hall foyer during regular business hours, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays. If you are bringing in a cash donation, please leave it with one of our City Hall employees in the administrative office.

Fill the Foyer started as a way of keeping the "giving" spirit surrounding the holidays going for an extended time period. "It's all about giving and helping families in our community who need assistance," said then-councilman and eventual mayor, Brett Barker, who started Fill the Foyer 10 years ago.

Students Shine in Iowa DOT's Ready! Set! Build! Bridge-Building Challenge

The Iowa Department of Transportation recently hosted its annual Ready! Set! Build! Bridge-Building Challenge, bringing together young engineering minds from across the state to put their skills to the test. Teams competed to construct the strongest and most innovative bridges within 2.5 hours using only basic materials such as popsicle sticks, wooden dowels, masking tape, glue, string, and poster board. Nevada entered three teams of 6th grade students, and they emerged as standouts in this year's event.

Nevada Silver Takes Home Top Honors

The Nevada Silver team included Leo Carsrud, Ansel Kingsbury, Amos Weyhrich, and Aurora Monson. They dominated the competition by building a bridge that held an impressive 68 pounds. This achievement secured them the top prize in the competition and marked Nevada as back-to-back champions. Their victory is a testament to the team's creativity, precision, and problem-solving abilities, continuing the town's proud legacy in engineering excellence.

Innovator Award Goes to Nevada Gold

Another Nevada team, Nevada Gold, showcased its ingenuity with a design so unique it captured the attention of the Iowa DOT engineers. Team members Cayla Fleming, Kane Kinyon, Riley Rasmusson, and Carver Ott, built a bridge that held 42 pounds and earned the Innovator Award for their team's outside-the-box approach. This recognition highlights the students' innovative spirit and ability to think creatively under pressure.

Nevada Purple Demonstrates Strength and Teamwork

Rounding out Nevada's success was the Nevada Purple team, consisting of Claire Luing, Ben Lessan, and Ophelia Murphy. Their bridge withstood an impressive 43 pounds, reflecting their teamwork and engineering design. Although they did not take home an award, their achievement added to the strong showing by Nevada students.

Engineering Excellence in Action

The Ready! Set! Build! Challenge serves as an opportunity for students to apply STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) principles in a hands-on environment. Participants must carefully balance strength, efficiency, and innovation while working within strict material constraints. For Nevada, this year's competition was a resounding success, with all three teams demonstrating outstanding skills and creativity.

Nevada Middle School's strong performance at the challenge is a testament to the district's commitment to fostering STEM education and nurturing future engineers. With two consecutive championships and recognition for innovative design, Nevada has firmly established itself as a powerhouse in the competition.

As the Iowa DOT continues to inspire young minds through initiatives like this, one thing is clear: The future of engineering is in capable hands, thanks to bright talents like those from Nevada.

The Heart of Nevada Athletics: How the Athletic Booster Club Powers our Programs

Nevada athletes thrive both on and off the field, thanks to the unwavering support of the Nevada Athletic Booster Club. This dedicated group of volunteers and supporters plays a pivotal role in shaping our athletic programs and fostering a strong sense of pride within the community.

Each year, the Booster Club contributes approximately $70,000 to the school's athletic programs. These funds provide critical resources, from new uniforms for all sports teams to specialized equipment like wrestling mats, starting blocks, and hurdles. Beyond equipment, the club enhances athletic facilities with improvements such as updated gym padding, modern scoreboards, and inspiring weight room wall graphics. They also fund technology tools like HUDL, which allows coaches and athletes to analyze performance and improve their game.

The Booster Club also creates opportunities for the community to come together and celebrate local sports. Events like the annual Youth Basketball Tournament, which brings 3rd-6th grade teams together for a day of spirited competition. The Cub Hub, the Booster Club's merchandise store, allows fans to showcase their Nevada Cubs pride, while the annual Golf Tournament offers supporters a chance to connect over a fun day on the course, with proceeds directly benefiting Nevada athletes.

Membership fees help fund resources not covered by school budgets, but the impact goes beyond finances. Members, including parents, alumni, and community members, are vital to promoting teamwork, discipline, and school spirit. Supporting the Booster Club goes beyond funding—it builds community, teaches students perseverance and leadership, and shows them their efforts matter. Visit nevadaboosterclub.com to join, sponsor, or learn more, and help empower Nevada's athletes to succeed.

NEVADA FOUNDATION RECOGNIZES OUTSTANDING PHILANTHROPY

The Nevada Foundation recently honored an organization, a resident(s), and a young person for their outstanding efforts in philanthropy. Receiving Spirit of Nevada awards were Burke Corporation, James and Clare Frevert, and Nevada High School student Dakota Davis.

About Burke: Their involvement is unmatched as they have committed to supporting the communities where their team members live and work. And in Nevada, their support is evident. Over $550,000 has been contributed to the growth and expansion of some of the catalyst projects in our community, like Tope, Story Medical, Nevada Field House to name a few. And in 2024 alone, their support has totaled an additional $164,000.

About the Freverts: They have demonstrated the spirit of philanthropy and support of the community that spans many years and many causes. We don't know if it is even possible to quantify their contributions to the community as there are too many to count.

About Dakota Davis: His passion to support area Veterans is above and beyond what most kids his age are doing. Dakota is already making a huge impact on a group of people in society. He is giving his time and energy to others in a philanthropic way. He is incredibly selfless in his quest to serve others and make them feel good. He does all of this while also working a job, playing sports and being a student.

NEVADA COMMUNITY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Nevada Community Historical Society has a mission of "preserving Nevada's heritage through education, promotion, and restoration.

At the start of this year, the NCHS is asking Nevada community members to consider joining its mission. On the following page, which you can clip out or make a copy of, you will see the various ways to support the NCHS in the years to come.

Below, the NCHS has provided a breakdown of the historic properties for which the organization is responsible. Thank you to all those who are willing to help this organization in this worthwhile mission for our community.

Nevada Community Historical Society Properties

Briggs Terrace/Evergreen Lane
1204 H Avenue

The house at Briggs Terrace/Evergreen Lane was built in 1897 for approximately $10,000. The brick home has passed in ownership from its builder, Otis Briggs, Sr., through four generations of the Briggs and Dutton families to the Nevada Community Historical Society in 1996. First called "Briggs Terrace," it is also known by the name "Evergreen Lane." Other interesting architecture on the property includes a carriage house and barn. The property is considered an outstanding landmark of the Nevada community. Restoration began in 1997 and will continue as resources and funds are available.

George Child
Log House
1204 H Avenue

This cabin is Nevada's oldest standing building. In 1854, George Child migrated from Illinois to Nevada, Iowa by oxen and covered wagon. His was the third house built in Nevada — then at the corner of 4th Street and J Avenue. It was purchased and restored by the Nevada Rotary Club in 1975 as a bicentennial project and presented to the historical society on July 4, 1980. It was moved to Briggs Terrace/Evergreen Lane, and restored in 2006.

Dyer-Dowell Victorian House
922 5th Street

This house was originally the Story County Jail, built in 1869. It was 24'x30' with a hall and jailer's residence on the first floor and prisoners' cells above. After it was enlarged and converted into a private home, it was purchased by Judge George W. and Martha Kellogg Dyer. Mrs. Dyer was the daughter of Dr. Nathan Alonzo and Hannah Kellogg — early pioneers of Nevada. Mrs. Austin A. Dowell (Isabel Dyer) gave the family home to the historical society in 1988 in memory of her parents and grandparents.

Halley
School

1204 H Avenue

In 1975, Halley School was given to the Nevada Bicentennial

Committee by Ivan and Sally Hornbacher Hansen, Dee Earl, and Lois Hornbacher in memory of their parents, Issac and Elma Hornbacher. Halley School was built in 1874, and located southeast of Nevada. It was used through the 1944-45 school year. Many local teachers take their classes here to learn about school in the "olden days." It was moved from the 4-H fairgrounds in 2006 and restored.
